To better protect your child while participating in water activities, please indicate whether or not your child can swim.

- No, please have my child wear a life jacket while not actively learning to swim.
- Yes, my child can swim and does not require the use of a life jacket.

As always, Mrs. Ford or Ms. Green is available to show you the school, introduce you to the teachers, and give you a personal tour of your child's classroom, as well as to address any specific questions or concerns you may have.

I have received notification of the 2026 summer tuition rates, and I understand that the supply fees are non-refundable. By registering for summer, I am acknowledging and accepting all policies and procedures of Step by Step Christian School.
